ACCIDENTALLY HURT

Rev. W. E. Bogart, of Bartow, who is well known in Ocala, was seriously hurt at Sanford last week on his way North to spend his vacation. It seems that in shifting the cars the collision was so severe that it threw him from his seat against another. He had to be assisted from car to car in his transfer at Jacksonville, and was confined to his sleeper all the way to Washington, where he is now so lame that he can just walk to his room. Instead of going further North he will return to the mountains of Georgia to spend the remainder of his vacation.

TO CLEANSE THE SYSTEM
